

Creative Europe:

EU Funding Opportunities for Literature and Publishing Sector

LXII Bologna Children's Book Fair – BolognaBookPlus Theatre, Hall 29 Mall 1

March 31, 2025

Are you a publisher or part of an organisation in the book and publishing sector? The Creative Europe programme offers dedicated funding to support your work. Its mission is to enhance the translation, circulation and linguistic diversity of literary works across Europe and beyond, expand audiences for European literature, and boost the sector's competitiveness through cooperation and networking between organisations in Europe.

03:30 pm Introduction

Arnaud Pasquali, Directorate-General Education and Culture, European Commission:

Creative Europe for Literature and the Publishing Sector

03:35 pm Projects from the call "Circulation of European Literary Works"

Moderators:

Mateja Lazar, Creative Europe Desk Slovenia

Enrico Proietti, Creative Europe Desk Italy

Projects presentation:

Pietro Biancardi, Iperborea, Italy: I Boreali - Diversity in Nordic Literature

Francesca Segato, Camelozampa, Italy: Reading Diversity

Alenka Uhr, Sodobnost Int., Slovenia: Connected with Books - Connecting the Worlds

04:00 pm Projects from the call "European Cooperation Projects"

Moderators:

Anna Conticello, Creative Europe Desk Italy

Sara Machado, Creative Europe Desk Portugal

Projects presentation:

Raffaella Baccolini, University of Bologna, Dept. of Interpretation and Translation, Centro MeTRa, Italy: G-Book - Gender Identity: Child Readers and Library Collections

Christine Morault, Éditions MeMo, France: ODM - L'Œil du Monde

Barbara Pregelj, Malinc, Slovenia: GG4A: Innovative Intercultural Reading Promotion

04:25 pm Conclusion